Cracking and collapsing, main fork Hyalite

Hyalite - main fork
Northern Gallatin
1/24/2019
Code
Notes

"Cracking/Whumphing observed on open east aspect at ~7300' in the main fork of Hyalite Canyon. We also observed what we suspect was a powder cloud across the canyon in the terrain above the Dribbles/Responsible Family Men around midday. It was difficult to be sure looking through the trees."

Number of slides
1
Number caught
0
Number buried
0
Images
Shooting cracks, Hyalite
Slab Thickness units
centimeters
Single / Multiple / Red Flag
Single Avalanche
Advisory Year
18-19